"I am in a prison: one wall is the avant-garde, the other wall is the past, and I want to escape." - Ligeti, György

Notes Regard the Spoken Text

The texts without notted rhythms may be spoken freely, but naturally.

The texts with rhythms notated should not be spoken mechanically or in sing-song manner. But the notated rhythms should be approximated to provide a sense of the meter.

If the performers are really concerned about speaking the text the composer will come to the performance and do the spoken sections.

Notes Regarding the Rhythms

The portions of the rhythms that evoke Ligeti's micropolyphony should not put the performer into a state of high anxiety. If the triplets, and quintuplets are not precisely coordinated as we know it will not end. Let them create a smeared texture.

The descending figures at the end need not be precisely coordinated.

Start with flute and end with bassoon. The effect of the descending figures near the end should be free, chaotic, and like things falling out of a closet.

NB: Ligeti loved Lewis Carroll's Alice Books. He also loved the Marx Brothers, who gave him inspiration. Let the spirit of Groucho, Chico, and Harpo reign throughout the piece.

Jabberwocky

Lewis Carroll

(Through the Looking Glass, Chpt. 1)

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.

"Beware the Jabberwock, my son!
The jaws that bite, the claws that catch!
Beware the Jubjub bird, and shun
The frumious Bandersnatch!"

He took his vorpal sword in hand;
Long time the manxome foe he sought—
So rested he by the Tumtum tree
And stood awhile in thought.

And, as in uffish thought he stood,
The Jabberwock, with eyes of flame,
Came whiffling through the tulgey wood,
And burbled as it came!

One, two! One, two! And through and through
The vorpal blade went snicker-snack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He went galumphing back.

"And hast thou slain the Jabberwock?
Come to my arms, my beamish boy!
O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!"
He chortled in his joy.

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.

"And two hard boiled eggs!"

Bicycle horn

This musical score page contains measures 127 through 130. The score is written for five staves. The first two staves are for vocal parts, with lyrics "And one duck egg" appearing in measure 130. The third staff is for a piano accompaniment in G major, featuring a triplet of eighth notes in measure 127 and a whole note in measure 128. The fourth staff is for a bass line, starting with a forte (f) dynamic and a triplet of eighth notes in measure 127, followed by a melodic line with a slur and a fermata in measure 128. The fifth staff is for a bicycle horn, with a "Slow and labored" instruction in measure 129, followed by a series of eighth notes with accents in measure 130. The score concludes with a double bar line at the end of measure 130.
